TO THE TRADE.

SEASON 1900-1901.

WE take pleasure in submitting herewith our Fall and Holiday Trade Catalogue for the Season of 1900-1901. In compiling this list we have endeavored to include as large a portion of our immense range as possible, and have spared neither time or expense in faithfully illustrating and describing each article.

Not only is it our aim to have our Catalogue of greatest possible assistance to our patrons in ordering goods, but it is gotten up subject to trade discount, so that he in turn may use it in making sales to his customers of goods he does not carry in stock.

When ordering give name, number and price, or fully describe articles required if not found in this list.

If you are not known to us, please give names of Toronto houses with whom you do business as reference; or if ordering goods C.O.D. kindly remit with order sufficient to cover express charges both ways, which amount will be deducted from your bill.

For Trade Discounts and Terms we refer you to colored slip on foregoing page.

Trusting to be favored with your orders, we remain,

Respectfully yours,

NERLICH & CO.

Natural Preserved PALMS

All our Palms are native tropical plants, and are so prepared by a chemical process that they will not fade, but retain all the grace and beauty of the living palm.

They require no care or water, and are not affected by heat, cold, gas, steam, or any atmospheric influence.

They are entirely free from dirt and moisture, consequently are the best, cheapest and most practical articles for decorating homes, hotels, churches, stores, restaurants, etc.

IMPERIAL SYMPHONIONS.

By a special arrangement we are able to offer these standard Instruments to the trade at much lower prices than heretofore. Investigation has convinced us that "Imperials" are easily the best Music Box on the market and we guarantee them to give perfect satisfaction.

The Imperial Symphonion excells all others in purity and volume of tone.

The Imperial Symphonion has movements with interchangeable parts.

The Imperial Symphonion is the only Music Box manufactured with indestructible steel discs.

The Imperial Symphonion cases are artistically designed, of great durability, and resist the effect of all climates.

The Imperial Symphonion in every respect is thoroughly up-to-date.
