A WHEEL TO TRUST
IT TAKES NO DUST

When a Man Gets a Good Thing

He lets people know it, usually, unless there will some profit accrue to him through silence. If he catches a good string of fish, the chances are ten to one he'll not go down a back street with it. Same way when a person gets a Bicycle which pleases him—he believes in letting other people know about it. Just ask STEARNS riders about Stearns Bicycles. They are always proud as kings of their mount
