MARY, Mary quite contrary,
 How does your garden
 grow?
 Silver bells and cockle shells,
 And pretty maids all in a row.

THERE was an old woman
 Called Nothing-at-all,
 Who rejoiced in a dwelling
 Exceedingly small:
 A man stretched his mouth
 To its utmost extent,
 And down at one gulp
 House and old woman went.

AENA, deena, dina, duss,
 Kattle, weela, wila, wuss,
 Spit, spot, must be done,
 Twiddlum, twaddlum, twenty-
 one.
 O-u-t spells out!

“WHAT do they call you?”
 “Patchy Dolly.”
 “Where were you born?”
 “In the cow’s horn.”
 “Where were you bred?”
 “In the cow’s head.”
 “Where will you die?”
 “In the cow’s eye.”

THERE was an old woman tossed up in a basket,
Ninety times as high as the
moon:
And where she was going, I
couldn't but ask her,
For in her hand she carried a broom.

"Old woman, old woman, old woman," quoth I,
"Whither, O whither, O
whither so high?"
"To sweep the cobwebs off the sky!"

"Shall I go with you?"
"Aye, by-and-by."

THE cuckoo's a fine bird,
 He sings as he flies;
 He brings us good tidings,
 He tells us no lies.

He sucks little birds' eggs,
 To make his voice clear;
 And when he sings "cuckoo!"
 The summer is near.

COME, my dear children,
 Up is the sun,
 Birds are all singing,
 And morn has begun.

Up from the bed, Miss,
 Out on the lea;
 The horses are waiting
 For you and for me!

ROCK-A-BYE, baby, thy cradle is green;
 Father's a nobleman, mother's a queen;
 And Betty's a lady, and wears a gold ring;
 And Johnny's a drummer, and drums for the king.

MY little old man and I fell out,
I'll tell you what 'twas all about;
I had money and he had none,
And that's the way the noise begun.

LITTLE Tommy Tittlemouse
Lived in a little house;
He caught fishes
In other men's ditches.

SOLOMON Grundy,
Born on a Monday,
Christened on Tuesday,
Married on Wednesday,
Took ill on Thursday,
Worse on Friday,
Died on Saturday,
Buried on Sunday:
This is the end of
Solomon Grundy.

HOT cross buns,
Hot cross buns,
One a penny, two a penny,
Hot cross buns.
If your daughters
Don't like 'em,
Give them to your sons,
One a penny, two a penny,
Hot cross buns.

HUMPTY-Dumpty sat on a wall,
Humpty-Dumpty had a great fall;
All the king's horses, and all the king's men,
Cannot put Humpty-Dumpty together again.

[An Egg]

THE winds they did blow,
The leaves they did wag;
Along came a beggar boy,
And put me in his bag—

He took me up to London,
A lady did me buy—
Put me in a silver cage
And hung me up on high—

With apples by the fire,
And nuts for to crack,
Besides a little feather-bed,
To rest my little back.

THERE was a little green WILLY boy, Willy boy,
 house, Where are you going?
 And in the little green house I will go with you, if I may.
 There was a little brown house, I am going to the meadows,
 And in the little brown house To see them mowing,
 There was a little yellow house, I am going to see them make
 And in the little yellow house hay.
 There was a little white house,
 And in the little white house
 There was a little heart.

[A Walnut]

AHILL full—a hole full,
 Yet you cannot catch a bowl full.

[Mist]

CRY, baby, cry,
 Put your finger in your eye,
 And tell your mother it wasn't I.

IF ifs and ands
 Were pots and pans,
 There would be no need for tinkers!
