“OTHERS”

BY C. D. MEIGS.

Lord, help me live from day to day
 In such a self-forgetful way,
 That even when I kneel to pray,
 My prayer shall be for—OTHERS.

Help me in all the work I do
 To ever be sincere and true,
 And know that all I'd do for you.
 Must needs be done for—OTHERS.

Let “Self” be crucified and slain,
 And buried deep; and all in vain
 May efforts be to rise again,
 Unless to live for—OTHERS.

And when my work on earth is done,
 And my new work in heaven's begun,
 May I forget the crown I've won,
 While thinking still of—OTHERS.

Others, Lord, yes, others,
 Let this my motto be,
 Help me to live for others,
 That I may live like Thee.

THE STORY OF IT

THERE is a story told of General Booth, which inspired the above lines. At one time he desired to send a New Year's greeting, by telegram and cablegram, to all Salvation Army posts in the world. Cablegrams are expensive and have to be short. General Booth boiled his message down to a single word, but he was great enough to choose the biggest word in all the dictionary—“OTHERS”—so that was his message, and all of it.

This poem can be supplied in various styles, mounted or unmounted, at from $1.00 per 100, to 5, 10, 15 and 30c. each, postpaid.
