

GRAPHICAL REPRESENTATION

OF THE

DIGNITARIES OF ENGLAND;

SHEWING THE

Costume of different Ranks,

FROM

THE KING

TO

A COMMONER;

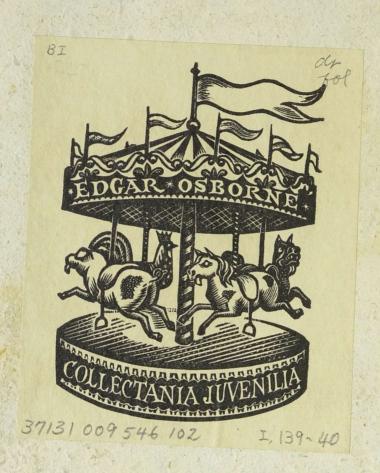

WITH THE

REGALIA USED AT THE CORONATION.

THE SECOND EDITION.

LONDON:

PRINTED FOR J. HARRIS AND SON, CORNER OF ST. PAUL'S CHURCH-YARD.

Sir Marry Merald's

GRAPHICAL REPRESENTATION

OF THE

DIGNITARIES OF ENGLAND;

SHEWING THE

Costume of different Kanks,

FROM

THE KING

TO

A COMMONER;

WITH THE

REGALIA USED AT THE CORONATION.

LONDON:

PRINTED FOR J. HARRIS AND SON,
CORNER OF ST. PAUL'S CHURCH-YARD.
1820.

Sir Marry Perulos

GRAPHICAL REPRESENTATION

BHY HO

DIGNITABLESCOF ENGLANDS

WAT DATED

Committee of piecerus, commission

THE KING

60

A COMMONMENT

aur nirtw

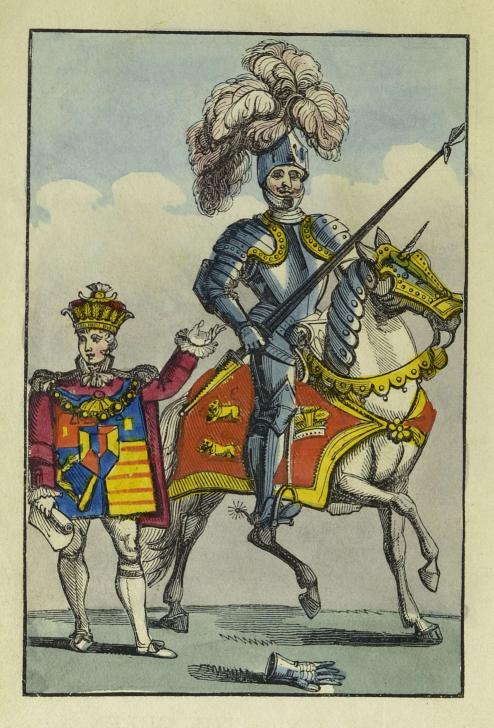

HEGALIA UEED AT THE CORONATION.

LOUDON

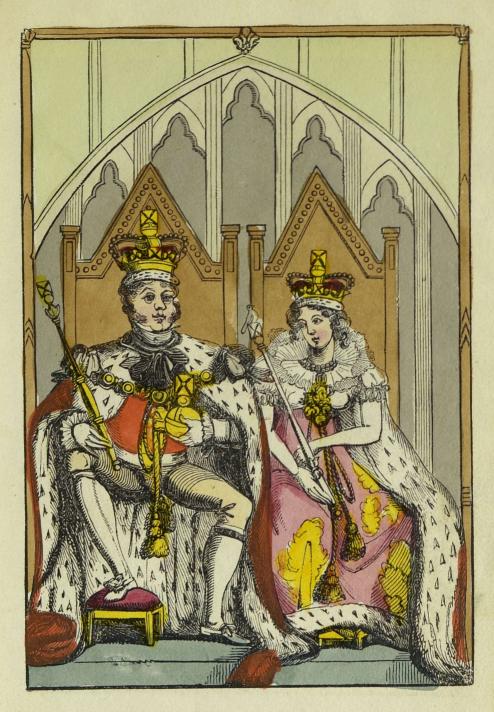

PRINTED FOR I. HATRIS AND SON, CORNER OF ST. PADL'S CHORON-YAUS.

THE RINGS CHARLEON AND SHRAED.

THE KING'S CHAMPION AND HERALD.

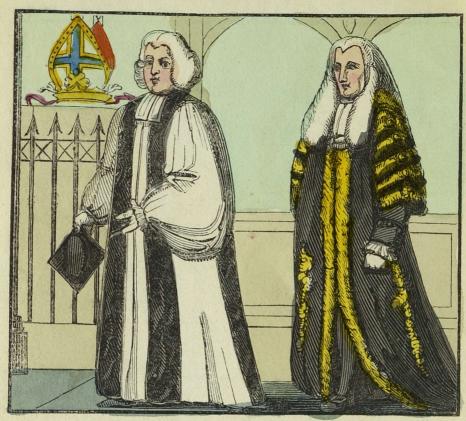

THE KING—THE QUEEN IN THEIR ROBES OF STATE.

THE KING THE QUEEN IN THEIR ROBES OF STATE.

satin, with full law, sleeves. His mitre, which is placed over his

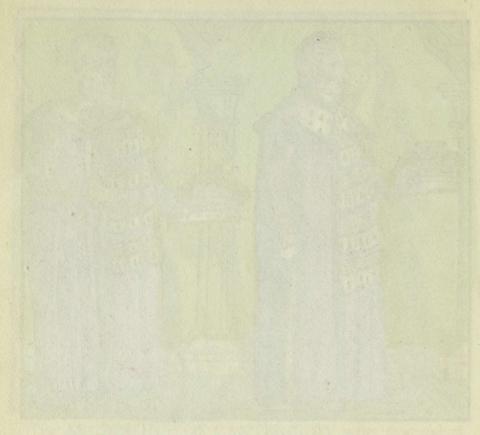

The ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY is the first peer of Great Britain next the Royal Family. He is Primate and Metropolitan of all England, has the title of Grace given him, and is styled "Most Reverend Father in God." His robes are of black satin, with full lawn sleeves. His mitre, which is placed over his coat of arms, is a round cap, pointed and cleft at the top, rising out of a Ducal coronet. At a Coronation, the Archbishop of Canterbury crowns the King, and the Archbishop of York the Queen.

The LORD CHANCELLOR OF ENGLAND is the first Lay person of the realm in all Civil affairs, after the King and Princes of the Blood. He presides over the Court of Chancery, and is Speaker of the House of Lords. He takes precedency of every temporal peer.—In writing, the style of address to him is, 'To the Right Honourable the Lord Chancellor;' and in conversation he is called, 'My Lord.'

A DUKE is the highest degree of the British Peerage. His coronet is a circle of gold, bordered with ermine, and set round with eight strawberry-leaves above the rim. He is addressed, 'To his Grace the Duke of ——;' and when spoken to, 'Your Grace,' 'My Lord,' or 'My Lord Duke."

A MARQUESS is the next in dignity to a Duke. His coronet is a circle of gold, bordered with ermine, and set round with four strawberry-leaves, and as many pearls on points, of equal height, alternately. In writing, a letter is usually directed, 'To the Most Noble the Marquess of ——;' and he is addressed in conversation, 'My Lord.'

A Descript is the biginest degree of the Diffich Pelonge. Itis commet is a circle of gold bosedered with expline, and set yound with eight structured belong the bins. The is addressed, or To is affected the District of To Island When applies to, Torri Cross.

An EARL holds the third rank among our tiles of nobility.

This coroner is a circle of gold bordered with ermine, heighword up with eight points, on the top of which are as many pearls, which are placed afternately on the tim below with the same admits of allowers below to him is usually directed, and the Right Housewells the Earl-of —; and when apolesa to, he is called, a Mar Eight and a same apolesa.

The next degrees of honear is a MISCOUNT. His corese is a circle of geld, berdered wish established having an unhunited number of pearls set close together on the rin, . The written address int. To the Right Minoritales hare lineared over 1 in conversation, 'Markingle Minoritales have lineared over 1 in conversation, 'Markingle Minoritales have lineared over 1 in conversation, 'Markingle Minoritales and the linear linear lineared over the linear linear lineared over the linear lin

An EARL holds the third rank among our titles of nobility. His coronet is a circle of gold, bordered with ermine, heightened up with eight points, on the top of which are as many pearls, which are placed alternately on the rim below, with the same number of strawberry-leaves. A letter to him is usually directed, 'To the Right Honourable the Earl of ——;' and when spoken to, he is called, 'My Lord.'

The next degree of honour is a VISCOUNT. His coronet is a circle of gold, bordered with ermine, and having an unlimited number of pearls set close together on the rim. The written address is, 'To the Right Honourable Lord Viscount ——;' in conversation, 'My Lord.'

A BISHOP ranks next, as a Spiritual Baron. Those of London, Durham, and Winchester, have the precedency; the other Bishops, according to the date of their consecrations. His robes are similar to an Archbishop's. The mitre the same, except that it rises out of a circle of gold. In England they are not worn, but placed with their coat of arms. A Bishop is styled, 'Right Reverend Father in God,' and addressed, 'My Lord.'

A TEMPORAL BARON is a dignity next to a Bishop. His coronet is a circle of gold, bordered with ermine, having six pearls on the rim, four of which are generally seen in engravings. When a letter is sent, it is usually directed, 'To the Right Honourable Lord ——;' and he is called, 'My Lord.'

A BISLOP ranks used, as a Spiritual Baron, Those of bondon, Daubam, and Minobester, have the conceiling to the ether likelops, according to the date of their consecrations. The robes are similar to an Archhishop's. The mitre the same, except that it rises out of a circle of gold. In England they are not worse, but placed with their cost of arms, A dishop is styled, 'Right Received Father in God,' and addressed, 'Right Lord.'

A TEMPORAL BARON is a dignity deal to a list property of the land pearle on the time flow of which are generally execute enguarings.

When a letter is next, it is a seally executed. The the Right Mean and the letter is called, 'My Land.' The the Right Mean and the is called, 'My Land.' And the is called, 'My Land.'

A EXIGHT OF THE CAPTER-TA HEROTAL

The hubic of character velves, have with white tablets; a manual of and bring velves; along the with white tablets; a manual of dark blue velves; along the velves; and other teachers. The George is as joint dark the right plantage of the George on households, and wenn circust the right character, pendent to a garter blue about. The collection of the order is of gold, and other parter (which is of blue velves, but dead with gold, and other is the motor. How soit on med proceeds with gold, and other or think life little life. The collection of pendents with gold, and other or think life little life.

A JULIST MEM sheet manufacturation the Law, appointed to hear carries, employed the hear carries conjusted that Law, and in their official espacity, one addressed the conjugate that nobes are of searles cloth, with white for each of transfer

The habit of a KNIGHT OF THE GARTER consists of a surcoat of crimson velvet, lined with white taffata; a mantle of dark blue velvet; a cap of black velvet, adorned with a diamond band and plume of white feathers. The George is a jewel, containing the figure of St. George on horseback, and worn across the right shoulder, pendent to a garter blue riband. The collar of the order is of gold, and on the garter (which is of blue velvet, bordered with gold) and star, is the motto, 'Honi soit qui maly pense.'

A JUDGE is a chief magistrate of the Law, appointed to hear causes, explain the laws, and pass sentence.—They are chosen from the Serjeants at Law, and in their official capacity, are addressed 'My Lord'.—Their robes are of scarlet cloth, with white fur cuffs and tippet.

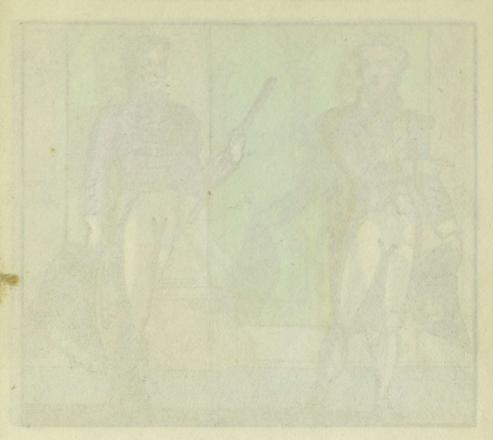

A DOCTOR IN DIVINITY is a clergyman who has taken certain degrees at one of the Universities. His dress-grown is of scarlet cloth, with wide sleeves, which at Oxford are of black velvet, and a hood of scarlet cloth lined with silk. His ordinary gown is black, either of silk or Prince's stuff, with a scarlet hood as before.

A SERJEANT AT LAW is the highest degree taken in the common law. The coif, which is the Serjeant's badge, is of lawn, and worn under the cap. The Judges in addressing them call them 'Brothers'.

A DOCTOR IN DIVINITY is a clergyman who is a taken contain description is of contain description of the Universities. After description is of velves, and a bond of secular class limed with silker affect and in block, without of eithing Tringe's sand, with silker affect and it block, without of eithing the limit with silker affect and it block, without of eithing and an according

A SERBLANT AT LAW is the highest degree taken in the commonday. The out, winch is the Serjeant's bidge, is of lows, and seem under the cap. The Judges in addressing them call them to Bestiers' the contract of the series of them.

Are A Dilling to be the commender of a single Fleet or Squadron. This dress is a bloc cost, faced with white herseyinere, with from burst of gold lack on the sleeves, and bottom holes repelledly embrodered. Whate herseymers waistcoat and breeches, and two species.

A FIELD MARSHALL the highest rank in the Army. This fall dress rous is of scaplet cloth with blue focings, turned up on the skirts with white kelesymera, rightly embroidered round the coller, each, and from historial of openiets he were what are someon of with rank with are made of silk cond with gold try. The franches or balanchists from is the insignia of his rank.

An ADMIRAL is the commander of a single Fleet or Squadron. His dress is a blue coat, faced with white kerseymere, with four bars of gold lace on the sleeves, and button-holes regularly embroidered. White kerseymere waistcoat and breeches, and two epaulets.

A FIELD-MARSHAL is the highest rank in the Army. His full dress coat is of scarlet cloth with blue facings, turned up on the skirts with white kerseymere, richly embroidered round the collar, cuffs, and front. Instead of epaulets he wears what are termed aiguillettes, which are made of silk cord with gold tags. The truncheon or baton in his hand is the insignia of his rank.

A GENERAL is the chief commanding officer of an Army. His dress is similar to the Field-Marshal's, only not so much embroidered. His duty is to regulate the march and encampment of the Army; on the day of battle to choose the most advantageous ground, and where he sees occasion, to send his orders by his aides-de-camp.

A NAVAL CAPTAIN is the commander of a ship. His rank is equal to that of a Colonel in the army. He is accountable for his ship if lost or taken through his misconduct. His province extends to the military government, navigation, and equipment of the vessel which he commands. His dress is nearly like the Admiral's, but he has only twisted button-holes, with slashed sleeves laced round.

A GENERAL is the chief commanding efficer of an Army, this dress is similar to the Reld-Marshal's, only not so souch embroidered. His duty is to regulate the starch and encampment of the Army; on the day of battle to choose the most advantageous ground, and where he sees occasion, to send his orders by his aides decemp.

A NAVAL CAPTAIN is the commander of a ship, wills come is equal to that of a Colombia the account. The for his ship if lest or taken through his unisconduct. It a province extends to the maintery governments his feation, and requipment of the versel which he commands is feating as a nearly like the Admiral's, but he has only tristed butter holes, with slashed sleeves laced round.

IC CONTRACTOR AND DELIVER IN SOCIETIES DE 1855.

A GENTLEMAN'S Court dress is a full-dress coat without collar or hapels, reads of silt, velvet, or cloth, often richly embrothered in gold and silver. He wears buckles and a sword. Any naval or militery uniform is reckoned a full Court dress.

The Court dress for LADIES is chiefly distinguished by the hoop. The petricuat is plain or trimmed, according to the finey of the weaver. Velvet, satis, silk, crape, or gause, are the only materials allowed for Ladies' Court dresses. Court dresses are trimmed, and aften embraides of with gold and silvery. Actinoid flowers are much used for emananting the perticual.

M. R. A bre Court regulation has dispensed with the wearing of the Map.

12 GENTLEMAN AND LADY IN COURT DRESSES.

A GENTLEMAN'S Court dress is a full-dress coat without collar or lapels, made of silk, velvet, or cloth, often richly embroidered in gold and silver. He wears buckles and a sword. Any naval or military uniform is reckoned a full Court dress.

The Court dress for LADIES is chiefly distinguished by the hoop. The petticoat is plain or trimmed, according to the fancy of the wearer. Velvet, satin, silk, crape, or gauze, are the only materials allowed for Ladies' Court dresses. Court dresses are trimmed, and often embroidered with gold and silver. Artificial flowers are much used for ornamenting the petticoat.

N. B. A late Court regulation has dispensed with the wearing of the Hoop.

The LORD MAYOR is the chief Magistrate of London, and is addressed during the year of his office as 'My Lord.' On state occasions he is superbly habited either in a gown knotted with gold tufts, like the Lord Chancellor's, or in one of crimson velvet when he precedes the King: on other occasions he wears a scarlet robe, richly furred, and a gold chain or collar, with a costly jewel appended. When on foot his train is supported by a page, and the Mace and Sword of State carried before him.

He is chosen by the Livery and Aldermen on Michaelmas-day, and enters into office the 8th of November. Being sworn in at Guildhall, the next day he goes in grand state by water to Westminster to be presented and sworn before the Barons of the Exchequer; after which he returns by water to Blackfriars Bridge, from whence a procession is made to Guildhall, where he entertains a numerous company with a sumptuous banquet.—He is addressed, 'To the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor.'

The LORD MALOR is the chief Magistrate of London, and is addressed during the year of his office has "Ma Lord," On state occasions he is superbly habited either in a gown knotted with gold tufus, like the Lord Chancellor's, or in one of crimson velvet when he pieced a the King; on other occasions he wears a scarlet robe, richly furred, and a gold chain or collar, with a costly tewel uppended. When on toot his train is supported by a page, and the office and Sword of State carried before him.

He is chosen by the Livery and Aldermon on Michaelmas-day, and enter into tinice the alli of November. Hence around it is the interpretation of the presence and swom before the Barwa of the inschedur; effect which he retains by visity to Black-fries Brake, from whence a procession is made to Guildhall, where he entertains a numerical equipolating with a sample of sample of the first defect of the instance of th

An ALDERMAN is the governor of his particular Ward, of which there are twenty-six in London.—From the Court of Aldermen are chosen the Lord Mayors: after they have filled thick office, they are entitled to wear a gold chain. Their gown is of scarlet cloth, edged with brown far.

The SHERIFFS are appointed to keep the courts of law, inspect the prisons, summon juries, and execute all write and judgments. Their gowns are of scarlet cloth, trianged with brown for, and they wear a gald chain. They are chosen annually on Midsummer-day, and enter into office on the 25th of S ptemper.

An ALDERMAN is the governor of his particular Ward, of which there are twenty-six in London.—From the Court of Aldermen are chosen the Lord Mayors: after they have filled that office, they are entitled to wear a gold chain. Their gown is of scarlet cloth, edged with brown fur.

The SHERIFFS are appointed to keep the courts of law, inspect the prisons, summon juries, and execute all writs and judgments. Their gowns are of scarlet cloth, trimmed with brown fur, and they wear a gold chain. They are chosen annually on Midsummer-day, and enter into office on the 28th of September.

The COMMON-COUNCILMEN consist of 236 members, who are chosen from the Wards of the City on St. Thomas's Day, by the householders who are Freemen. With the Lord Mayor and Aldermen they compose the Court of Common-Council, or City Parliament. Their gowns are mazarine blue silk, trimmed with brown fur.

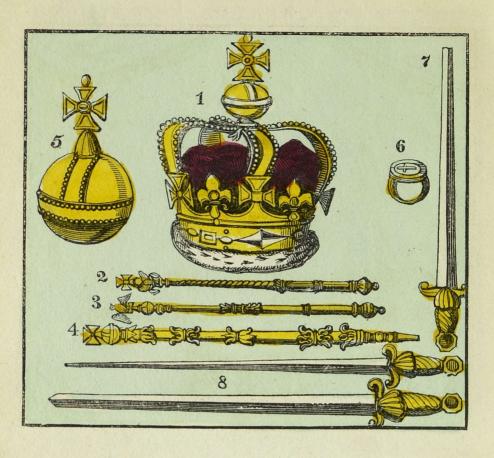

The LIVERY is a numerous and respectable elective body. They choose the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Members of Parliament for the City, and other Officers. Their gowns are generally made of black cloth, trimmed with brown fur.

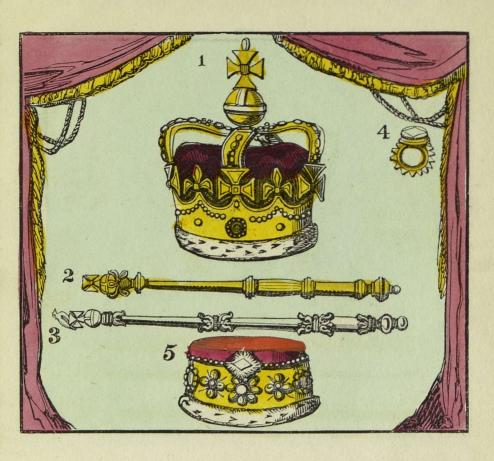

The COMMON-COUNCILMEN consist of 256 members, who are chosen from the Wards of the City on St. Thomas's Day, by the householders who are director. With the Lord Mayor and Aldermen they compuse the Court of Common. Common, or City Parliament. Their gowns are maximume himself, trimmed with brown for.

- 1. The Imperial Crown of Great Heitain.
- 2. The Golden Scepare with the Cross!"
- 3. The Sceptie with the Boys, the Enchlan of Fence.
- 4. St. Adward's Staff, carried before the King at his Core-
- 3. The Golden Orb, or Glossesput into the King's right hand before he erowned.
  - 6. The King's Coronation Ring.
- Z. The Cartaga, or Pointless Sward, representing the Sword of Marry.
  - The Tweeds of Inspice Spiritual and Temporal.

- 1. The Imperial Crown of Great Britain.
- 2. The Golden Sceptre with the Cross.
- 3. The Sceptre with the Dove, the Emblem of Peace.
- 4. St. Edward's Staff, carried before the King at his Coronation.
- 5. The Golden Orb, or Globe, put into the King's right hand before he is crowned.
  - 6. The King's Coronation Ring.
- 7. The Curtana, or Pointless Sword, representing the Sword of Mercy.
  - 8. The Swords of Justice, Spiritual and Temporal.

- 1. The Queen's Crown of State.
- 2. The Sceptre of Queen Mary.
- 3. The Ivory Sceptre, with a Dove.
- 4. The Queen's Coronation Ring.
- 5. The Queen's Circle, worn in proceeding to the Coronation.

- 1, The Queen's Crown of State.
  - 2. The Scapine of Queen Mary.
- S. The Ivory Sceptre, with a Dove.
  - d. The Cecen's Caronation Hung.
- 5. The Opera's Circle, worn in proceeding to the Coronation.

The KING'S YEOMEN OF THE GUARD are a band of 100 men on constant duty, at the Palace. Their attendance is confined to the Sovereign's person, both at home and abread.

Their conts are of scarlet cloth, striped with blue velvet, edged with gold. On the breast is embroidered the King's cipher, G. R. with the Crown, surrounded by the Pose, Thistle, and Shannock, They went black velvet caps, with party-coloured disords.

The KING'S YEOMEN OF THE GUARD are a band of 100 men on constant duty at the Palace. Their attendance is confined to the Sovereign's person, both at home and abroad. Their dress is the same as it was in the time of Henry VIII.

Their coats are of scarlet cloth, striped with blue velvet, edged with gold. On the breast is embroidered the King's cipher, G. R. with the Crown, surrounded by the Rose, Thistle, and Shamrock. They wear black velvet caps, with party-coloured ribands.

HARRIS'S

Cabinet

OF

AMUSEMENT AND INSTRUCTION.

Consisting of the most approved Novelties for the Nursery; printed in a superior manner upon good paper, and neatly coloured, price 1s. 6d. each.—The following is a list of those already published; to which additions will continually be made:—

- 1. MOTHER HUBBARD and her Dog.
- 2. DAME TROT and her CAT.
- 3. COCK ROBIN, a Painted Toy, for either Girl or Boy.
- 4. The History of the House THAT JACK BUILT.
- 5. NURSERY NOVELTIES, or a New Alphabet for Children.
- 6. The History of the Apple Pie, written by Z; an Alphabet for little Masters and Misses.
- 7. Dame Dearlove's Ditties for the Nursery, or Songs for the Amusement of Infants.
- 8. Peter Piper's Practical Principles of Plain and Perfect Pronunciation.
  - 9. The INFANT'S FRIEND, or Easy Reading Lessons.
- 10. The SNOW-DROP, or Poetic Trifles for Little Folks, after the manner of the "Daisy" and "Cowslip."
- 11. The Hobby-Horse, or the High Road to Learning; being a revival of that favourite Alphabet, "A was an Archer and shot at a Frog."
- 12. The CRIES of LONDON, or Sketches of various Characters in the Metropolis.
- 13. The Courtship, Marriage, and Pic-Nic Dinner of Cock Robin and Jenny Wren.
- 14. The Alphabet of Goody Two Shoes; "by learning which she soon got rich."
- 15. The History of Sixteen Wonderful Old Women; illustrated with as many Engravings, exhibiting their principal Eccentricities.
- 16. Spring Flowers, or Easy Lessons for Young Children, not exceeding Words of Two Syllables; with Lessons for Sundays, and Hymns. By Mrs. Ritson.
- 17. Sir Harry Herald's Graphical Representation of the Dig-NITARIES OF ENGLAND, shewing the Costume of different Ranks, from the King to a Commoner, with the Regalia used at the Coronation. Price 1s. 6d. Second Edition.
- 18. The Paths of Learning strewed with Flowers, or English Grammar illustrated. Price 1s. 6d.
- 19. Tommy Trip's Museum, or a Peep at the Quadruped Race, Part I. Price 1s. 6d.
  - 20. TOMMY TRIP'S MUSEUM, Part II. Price 1s. 6d.

