P R E F A C E.

TH E Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, from its first institution, has been attentive to the spiritual wants of the Iroquois, or Six Confederate Nations of Indians. In the Year 1701, that Society was incorporated ; and the very next Year, they sent a Missionary to the Mohawks, who were situated the nearest to the English Settlements, and have been always considered as the head of the Confederacy. Other Missionaries were appointed for that station from time to time ; and by the blessing of God on their labours, the Mohawk nation, and many individuals of the other nations, were brought over to Christianity.

It was early foreseen that a translation of the Liturgy of the Church of England into the Mohawk language, which is generally understood by all those nations, would promote the instruction of the Indians, and facilitate their conversion. Proper endeavours were therefore used to obtain such a translation ; which was first printed at New York, about the year 1714, under the direction of the Reverend Mr. Andrews, the Society's Missionary to the Mohawks. This edition comprised the Morning and Evening Service, the Litany and Catechism ; to which were added select passages from the Old and New Testaments, and some Family prayers ; which probably was all that could then be procured.

The Communion Office, that of Baptism, Matrimony, and Burial of the Dead, with more passages of Scripture, Occasional Prayers, and some singing Psalms, were translated by the Reverend Dr. Henry Barclay, who had served in the Indian Mission with great fidelity and success for many years ; and these were inserted in the next edition of the Indian Prayer Book, which was printed also at New York, in 1769, under the inspection of the Reverend Dr. John Ogilvie, who succeeded Dr. Barclay in that Mission. Both these clergymen were eminent for their piety and exemplary character, and their memory will long be revered by the Indians.

In the course of the late American war, most of the Indian Prayer Books were destroyed : A very few copies only were preserved ; and the Mohawks, apprehensive that the book might be be wholly lost in a little time, and desirous also of a new supply, earnestly requested General Haldimand, Governor of Canada, that he would order it to be reprinted. In compliance with their request, the Indian Prayer Book was printed at Quebec in 1780. As the number then printed was small, and some of the copies were unfortunately lost, another impression became necessary.

The present Edition will be found, on examination, to be superior in many respects to any of the former impressions. The pointing, accentuation and spelling are more correct. Other editions were printed in the Mohawk language only; in this, the English is also printed on the opposite page. Hereby the Indians will insensibly be made acquainted with the English language; and such White People in their vicinity as chuse to learn Mohawk, will hence derive much assistance.

But besides this addition, the Gospel of St. Mark is here inserted, with a translation of it into the Mohawk language by Captain JOSEPH BRANT, a Mohawk by birth, and a man of good abilities, who was educated at one of the American Colleges. This is the first of the Gospels which has appeared intire in that language; and it will be a valuable acquisition to the Indians, who may hereby gain a more perfect knowledge of our blessed Saviour's doctrine and miracles, and of the way to salvation through his meritorious death and sufferings. It will probably be the more acceptable to the Indians for being translated by a person who is of their own nation and kindred. A version of some other parts of the New Testament may be soon expected from Captain BRANT; and he deserves great commendation for thus employing his time and talents to promote the honour of God, and spiritual welfare of his brethren.

The Mohawks are a respectable nation. They entered into an alliance with the English immediately after the latter became possessed of the province of New York in the last century. To that alliance they have faithfully and uniformly adhered, without any deviation, from that time to the present day; which may in a good measure be attributed to their Conversion, and to the principles which were inculcated by the Missionaries who resided among them. Their decided adherence to the British interest during the late Revolt in America, made it expedient for them to abandon their ancient settlements in New York, and remove to Canada, when the Independency of the Thirteen revolted Colonies was acknowledged by this country. Such was their attachment to our common Sovereign, whom they consider as their Father, and such their predilection in favour of our nation, that they chearfully submitted to this inconvenience, rather than remain in their native country when under a Foreign jurisdiction. They are now fixed in the South West

West parts of Canada with their worthy Missionary, the Reverend Mr. Stuart; and as they all profess Christianity, are zealous in their Profession, and have lately expressed a strong desire that other Indians might also partake of the blessings of the Gospel, it may be reasonably hoped that they will be instrumental in diffusing the light of Revelation among those numerous nations of Indians on the American continent, who are still buried in heathen darkness and ignorance. Every devout Christian will readily join in fervent wishes for the accomplishment of this event.

It will afford pleasure to those faithful Indians to know---that His present Majesty was pleased to express much satisfaction when informed that a copy of St. Mark's Gospel, translated by Captain Brant, was ready for the press; and also to signify His Royal pleasure that it should be printed for the use of the Mohawks. This is now done. A large impression of the Prayer Book, with that Gospel, and an equal number of Primers, is printed at the expence of Government for their use and benefit. This mark of Royal attention will not fail to meet with suitable returns of gratitude from the Mohawks, who hold these books in high estimation, and were very desirous that they should be printed; and they may always expect similar favours, whilst their conduct continues to be distinguished, as it has been hitherto, by candour and fidelity.

Before I conclude, it may be proper to observe---that this edition is indebted for several of the advantages which it has above others, to an Officer, who was many years employed in the Indian department in North America. He took the trouble of superintending the impression, critically revising the whole, and correcting the sheets as they came from the press. His accurate knowledge of the Mohawk language, qualified him for the undertaking; and it is no more than justice to say, that this is only one out of many instances of this gentleman's unremitting attention to the welfare of the Indians, who love and respect him as their particular friend.

THE ORDER FOR
, M O R N I N G P R A Y E R,

Daily throughout the Year.

TAt the beginning of Morning Prayer, the Minister shall read with a loud voice some one or more of these Sentences of the Scriptures that follow: and then he shall say that which is written after the said Sentences.

WHEN the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. Ezek. 18. 27.

I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me. Psal. 51. 3.

Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities. Psal. 51. 9.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God thou wilt not despise.—Psal. 51. 17.

Rend your heart and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful,

We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done: And there is no health in us. Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness, and live ; and hath given power and commandment to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his People, being penitent, the Absolution and Remission of their sins : He pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore, let us beseech him to grant us true repentance, and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him, which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man :
thou didst not abhor the Virgin's womb :

When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death :
thou didst open the kingdom of Heaven to all believers.

Thou sittest at the right hand of God : in the glory of the Father.

We believe that thou shalt come : to be our Judge.

We therefore pray thee, help thy servants : whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.

Make them to be numbered with thy Saints : in glory everlasting.

O Lord save thy people : and bless thine heritage.

Govern them : and lift them up for ever.

Day by day : we magnify thee.

And we worship thy Name : ever world without end.

Vouchsafe, O Lord : to keep us this day without sin.

O Lord, have mercy upon us : have mercy upon us.

O Lord, let thy mercy lighten upon us : as our trust is in thee.

O Lord, in thee have I trusted : let me never be

Morning Prayer.

That we should be saved from our enemies : and from the hands of all that hate us ;

To perform the mercy promised to our forefathers : and to remember his holy covenant ;

To perform the oath which he sware to our forefather Abraham : that he would give us ;

That we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies : might serve him without fear ;

In holiness and righteousness before him : all the days of our life.

And thou, Child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest : for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways ;

To give knowledge of salvation unto his people : for the remission of their sins,

Through the tender mercy of our God : whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us ;

To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death : and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the Clergy and People.

A Lmighty and everlasting God, who alone workest great marvels; send down upon our Bishops and Curates, and all Congregations committed to their charge, the healthful Spirit of thy grace; and that they may truly please thee, pour upon them the continual dew of thy blessing; Grant this, O Lord, for the honour of our Advocate and Mediator, Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ A Prayer of S. Chrysostom,

A Lmighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

2 Cor. 13. 14.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

THE ORDER FOR EVENING PRAYER,

Daily throughout the Year.

¶ At the beginning of Evening Prayer, the Minister shall read with a loud voice some one or more of these Sentences of the Scriptures that follow: and then he shall say that which is written after the said Sentences.

WHEN the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. Ezek. 18. 27.

I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me. Psal. 51. 3.

Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities. Psal. 51. 9.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken, and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise. Psal. 51. 17.

Rend your heart and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful,

And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore I pray and beseech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart, and humble voice, unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me:

A Lmighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness, and live ; and hath given power and commandment to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his People, being penitent, the Absolution and Remission of their sins : He pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore, let us beseech him to grant us true repentance, and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him, which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord. ¶ Then shall be said or sung the Apostles Creed by the Minister and the people, standing.

I Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth :

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord ; Who was conceived by the holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary ; Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried ; He descended into hell ; The third day he rose again from the dead, He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty ; From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost ; The holy Catholick Church ; The Communion of Saints ; The forgiveness of Sins ; The resurrection of the Body, And the life everlasting. Amen.

¶ And after that, these Prayers following, all devoutly kneeling ; the Minister first pronouncing with a loud voice ;

The Lord be with you.

Answer. And with thy spirit.

¶ Then shall the Priest, and the People with him, say the Lord's Prayer.

O UR Father which art it heaven, Hallowed be thy Name ; Thy kingdom come ; Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven : Give us this day our daily bread ; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us ; And lead us not into temptation ; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Priest. O Lord, deal not with us after our sins.

Answ. Neither reward us after our iniquities.

¶ Let us pray.

O God merciful Father, that despisest not the sighing of a contrite heart, nor the desire of such as be sorrowful ; Mercifully assist our prayers that we make before thee in all our troubles and adversities whensoever they oppres us ; and graciously hear us, that those evils which the craft and subtilty of the devil or man worketh against us, be brought to nought, and by the providence of thy goodness they may be dispersed, that we thy servants, being hurt by no persecutions, may evermore give thanks unto thee in thy holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

O Lord, arise, help us, and deliver us for thy Name's sake.

O God we have heard with our ears, and our fathers have declared unto us the noble works that thou didst in their days, and in the old time before them.

O Lord, arise, help us, and deliver us for thine Honour.

T A Collect or Prayer for all Conditions of Men, to be used at such times when the Litany is not appointed to be said.

O God, the Creator and Preserver of all mankind, we humbly beseech thee for all sorts and conditions of men, that thou wouldest be pleased to make thy ways known unto them ; thy saving health unto all nations. More especially we pray for the good estate of the Catholick Church ; that it may be so guided and governed by thy good Spirit, that all who profess and call themselves Christians, may be led into the way of truth, and hold the faith in unity of Spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of Life. Finally, we commend to thy fatherly goodness, all those who are any ways afflicted or distressed in mind, body, or estate, [* especially those for whom our Prayers are desired] That it may please thee to comfort and relieve them according to their several necessities, giving them patience under their sufferings, and a happy issue out of all their afflictions. And this we beg for Jesus Christ his sake. Amen.

T A Prayer that may be said after any of the former.

O God, whose nature and property is ever to have mercy, and to forgive, receive our humble petitions ; and though we be tied and bound with the chain of our sins, yet let the pitifulness of thy great mercy loose us, for the honour of Jesus Christ our Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

unworthy servants do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving kindness to us, and to all men; [ particularly to those who desire now to offer up their praises and thanksgivings for thy late mercies vouchsafed unto them.*] We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ;
for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.
And we beseech thee give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we may shew forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up ourselves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days, through Jesus Christ our Lord; to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

Quest. WHAT is your Name ?

Answe. N. or M.

Quest. Who gave you this Name ?

Answe. My Godfathers and Godmothers, in my Baptism, wherein I was made a member of Christ, the child of God, and an inheritor of the kingdom of heaven.

Quest. What did your Godfathers and Godmothers then for you ?

Answe. They did promise and vow three things in my name : First, that I should renounce the devil and all his works, the pomps and vanity of this wicked world, and all the sinful lusts of the flesh. Secondly, that I should believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith. And thirdly, that I should keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of my life.

Quest. Dost thou not think that thou art bound to believe and to do as they have promised for thee ?

Answe. Yes, verily ; and by God's help so I will. And I heartily thank our heavenly Father, that he hath called me to this state of salvation, through Jesus Christ our Saviour. And I pray unto God to give me his grace, that I may continue in the same unto my life's end.

Catechist. Rehearse the Articles of thy belief?

Answer.

I Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary, Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; The third day he arose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; The holy Catholick Church; The Communion of Saints; The Forgiveness of sins; The Resurrection of the body, And the Life everlasting. Amen.

Ques. What dost thou chiefly learn in these Articles of thy belief?

Answ. First, I learn to believe in God the Father, who hath made me, and all the World;

Secondly, in God the Son, who hath redeemed me, and all mankind;

Thirdly, in God the Holy Ghost, who sanctifieth me, and all the elect people of God.

Quest. You said that your Godfathers and Godmothers did promise for you that you should keep God's commandments : Tell me how many there be?

Answe. Ten.

Quest. Which be they ?

Answer.

THE same which God spake in the twentieth Chapter of Exodus, saying, I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

I. Thou shalt have none other gods but me.

II. Thou shalt not make to thyself any graven image, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them : for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, and visit the sins of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me ; and shew mercy unto thousands in them that love me, and keep my commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain : for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his Name in vain.

IV. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath-day. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to do ; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God : In it thou shalt do no manner of work, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, thy cattle, and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days the Lord

To honour and obey the King, and all that are put in authority under him. To submit myself to all my governors, teachers, spiritual pastors and masters. To order myself lowly and reverently to all my betters. To hurt no body by word or deed. To be true and just in all my dealings. To bear no malice nor hatred in my heart. To keep my hands from picking and stealing, and my tongue from evil-speaking, lying, and flandering. To keep my body in temperance, soberness, and chastity. Answer.

OUR Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven: Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Quest. What desirest thou of God in this Prayer?

Answ. I desire my Lord God our heavenly Father, who is the giver of all goodness, to send his grace unto me, and to all people, that we may worship him, serve him, and obey him, as we ought to do. And I pray unto God that he will send us all things that be needful both for our souls and bodies; and that he will be merciful unto us, and forgive us our sins; and that it will please him to save and defend us in all dangers ghostly and bodily; and that he will keep us from all sin and wickedness, and from our ghostly enemy, and from everlasting death. And this I trust he will do of his mercy and goodness, through our Lord Jesus Christ. And therefore I say, Amen. So be it.

Question.

HOW many Sacraments hath Christ ordained in his Church?

Answe. Two only as generally necessary to salvation; that is to say, Baptism, and the Supper of the Lord.

Quest. What meanest thou by this word Sacrament?

Answe. I mean an outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace, given unto us, ordained by Christ himself, as a means whereby we receive the same, and a pledge to assure us thereof.

Quest. How many parts are there in a Sacrament?

Answe. Two: the outward visible sign, and the inward spiritual grace.

Quest. What is the outward visible sign, or form in Baptism?

Answe. Water: wherein the person is baptized, In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Quest. What is the inward and spiritual grace?

Answe. A death unto sin, and a new birth unto righteousness; for being by nature born in sin and the children of wrath, we are hereby made the children of grace.

Quest. What is required of persons to be baptized?

Answ. Repentance, whereby they forsake sin; and faith, whereby they stedfastly believe the promises of God made to them in that Sacrament.

Quest. Why then are Infants baptized, when by reason of their tender age they cannot perform them?

Answ. Because they promise them both by their sureties: which promise, when they come to age, themselves are bound to perform.

Quest. Why was the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper ordained?

Answ. For the continual remembrance of the sacrifice of the death of Christ, and of the benefits which we receive thereby.

Quest. What is the outward part, or sign of the Lord's Supper?

Answ. Bread and wine, which the Lord hath commanded to be received.

Quest. What is the inward part or thing signified?

Answ. The Body and Blood of Christ, which are verily and indeed taken and received by the faithful in the Lord's Supper.

Quest. What are the benefits whereof we are partakers thereby?

Answ. The strengthening and refreshing of our souls by the Body and Blood of Christ, as our bodies are by the bread and wine.

A COLLECTION OF PRAYERS.

A Morning Prayer for a Family.

Almighty God! Father of all mercies, we thine unworthy servants present ourselves with all humility before thy divine Majesty, to offer to thee this our morning sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving for all thy goodness and lovingkindness vouchsafed to us thy sinful creatures. We bless thee for creating us after thine own Image and Likeness, for making us capable of loving thee and enjoying thee eternally. We bless thee for preserving us from innumerable accidents and dangers through the whole course of our lives till this time; for refreshing our bodies the night past with comfortable rest and sleep; for bringing us safe to the light of this day. We bless thee for our food and raiment, for our health and friends, and for all the comforts and accommodations of this life. But above all, we praise and magnify thy Holy Name, for thine inestimable

AN ACT OF RECONCILIATION AND FORGIVENESS.

We acknowledge, O Lord! that we have rendered ourselves unworthy of thy favours and blessings, by our many great and heinous sins: But we do with shame and sorrow confess our frequent breaches of thy holy laws, in thought, word, and deed; that we have left undone those things thou hast commanded, and done those things thou hast forbidden; and it is of thy mercy alone that we are not consumed. But, O most mighty and merciful God, who hast compassion upon all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, who wouldest not the death of a sinner, but that he should rather turn from his sin and be saved; mercifully forgive us our trespasses, receive and comfort us, who are grieved and wearied with the burden of our sins: Thy property is always to have mercy; to thee only it

We acknowledge, O Lord ! that through the weakness of our mortal nature, we can do no good thing without thee ; grant us therefore the help of thy grace, that in keeping thy commandments, we may please thee both in will and deed.

Teach us also to see how frail and uncertain our condition is in this world, and so to number our days, that we may seriously apply our hearts to heavenly wisdom ; and grant, that as we are baptized into the death of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, so by continually mortifying our corrupt affections, we may be buried with him, and through the grave and gate of death may pass to a joyful resurrection.

ledging our wretchedness, may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness.

Grant us, O Lord ! the assistance of thy Holy Spirit, that for the time to come, we may think and do such things as be rightful ; that we, who cannot do any thing that is good without thee, may by thee be enabled to live according to thy will ; that thy grace may always so prevent and follow us, as to make us continually to be given to all good works.

Help us, O Lord ! to withstand the assaults of the enemies of our salvation, the world, the flesh, and the devil, and with pure hearts and minds to follow thee the only God. Graft in our souls the love of thy name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of thy great mercy keep us in the same.

Teach us, O Lord ! so to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom ; and grant that we may press forward toward the prize of the high-calling that is before us, with faith and patience, with humility and meekness, with mortification and self-denial, with charity and constant perseverance to the end ; that so when we shall depart this life, we may sleep in the Lord, and at the general resurrection in the last day, may be found acceptable in thy sight, and receive that blessing which thy beloved Son shall then confer upon all those that truly love and fear thee.

Extend thy goodness, O Lord ! to the whole race of mankind ; have mercy upon all that are in darkness and the shadow of death ; take from them all ignorance, hardness of heart, and contempt of thy word ; and so fetch them home to thy flock, that they may be saved.

Let thy continual pity cleanse and defend thy church, and because it cannot continue in safety without thy succour, preserve it evermore by thy help and goodness. Bless all our Governors both in church and state, that in their several stations they may be useful and serviceable to thy glory, and the public good. We make our humble supplications to thee for all our benefactors, friends and relations, and also for our very enemies ; let thy fatherly hand be ever over them, let thy Holy Spirit be ever with them, and so lead them in the knowledge and obedience of the word, that in the end they may obtain everlasting life. Prosper the labours of those Missionaries they send among us, that, through thy grace, their ministry may be effectual in delivering the Indian nations in these parts from spiritual darkness, and bringing them to the saving light and knowledge of the Gospel ; and from the power of Satan to the living God.

And as we pray unto thee, O God ! for ourselves and others, so we desire to bless and praise thy holy name for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all men. We give thee hearty thanks for the preservation of us the day past, and the rest of our lives, from innumerable accidents and dangers, for the comforts and conveniences, as well as the necessaries of life. But above all, we laud and magnify, and adore thy goodness in the redemption of the world by the death and passion of our Saviour Christ, who did humble himself even to the death upon the cross for us miserable sinners, that he might exalt us to everlasting life. Teach us to express our thankfulness, by submitting ourselves entirely to his holy will and pleasure, and by studying to serve him in true holiness and righteousness all the days of our life. A Prayer for removing the Obstacles of Believing.

LORD of all Power and Might, who art the Author and Giver of all good things; assist me by thy grace, that I may mortify all the inordinate and corrupt inclinations of my heart, which oppose the belief of thy holy and heavenly truths. Enable me to conquer my evil habits, and govern my unruly passions, that they may not indispose my mind in embracing that evidence which so plentifully accompanieth thy divine revelations to the sons of men. Let not the scandalous divisions amongst Christians, nor the ill lives of those that profess thy holy religion, ever stagger or weaken my belief of it, since love and peace, and unity, are marks of thy true disciples, and that thy wrath is revealed from heaven against all those that obey not the gospel of thy Son. Keep my mind free from all prejudice, which puts so false a bias upon the understanding, even in matters of the greatest importance, and which may prove so fatal and destructive to my eternal welfare; that seeing the reasonableness of those things thou hast required to be believed, the perfection of those duties thou hast enjoined to be practised, and the power and force of those motives upon which both are founded, I may be stedfast and unmoveable, and at last receive the end of my faith, even the salvation of my soul, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

A Prayer for an effectual Faith.

O Holy and eternal God, who hast graciously condescended to establish with Christians a covenant of faith and obedience, with the promises of a present supply of grace and assistance, and of a future reward to crown all those that persevere in thy service; O let me for ever dwell upon this Rock, that, while I am surrounded with sensible things, I may not be shaken by the power of them. That no charms of present sinful pleasures, may make me forget that place of torment to which they consign me. That the cares of this life, and the deceitfulness of riches, may never make me neglect a treasure that faileth not, an inheritance with the Saints in light. Work in me all those godly affections that may make my faith effectual to my salvation. Let the belief of thy paternal care over me produce love, honour, and dutiful obedience; the belief of thy Almighty Power, reverence and godly fear; the belief of thy righteousness, holiness in all manner of conversation; that faith being the governing principle of my life, it may compose my mind under all events, by a firm trust and confidence in thy wise providence; and that it may dispel all solicitude for wordly supplies, by a settled persuasion, that thou

LORD of all Power and Might, who art the Author and Giver of all good things; graft in my heart the love of thy Name, increase in me true religion, nourish me with all goodness, and of thy great mercy keep me in the same, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for true Christian Zeal.

Gracious God, who hast endowed me with an immortal soul, grant that I may apply my most serious thoughts to work out my own salvation with fear and trembling. Enlighten my understanding, that I may see the wondrous things of thy law; rectify my will, that I may follow the plain rules of good, and eschew the ways of evil; and in all my actions fix my heart entirely upon thy glory. Let my devout prayers be offered in retirements where thine All-seeing eye only enters. Teach me heartily to strive that I may enter in at the strait gate, to fight the good fight of faith, and to destroy the whole body of sin. Grant I may be always upon my guard against my potent and malicious enemies; and that the short time I have to work, may make me careful to improve it to the best purposes; and the uncertainty of all things here below, may call off my mind from the objects of secular happiness; that applying myself entirely to devotion and charity, justice and sobriety, I may be prepared in the tem-

A Prayer for a right Use of the Holy Sacrament.

Glory be to thee, O crucified love, who at thy last Supper didst ordain the holy Eucharist, the Sacrament and feast of love. It was for the continual remembrance of the sacrifice of thy death, O blessed Jesu, and of the benefits we receive thereby, that thou wast pleased to ordain this sacred and awful rite; all love, all glory be to thee. Ah, dearest Lord, how little sensible is he of thy love in dying for us, who can ever forget thee! Woe is me that ever a sinner should forget his Saviour! And yet, alas, how prone we are to do it! Glory be to thee, O gracious Jesu! who to help our memories, and impreis thy love deep in our souls, hast instituted the blessed Sacrament, and hast commanded us to do this in remembrance of thee. Let the propitiatory sacrifice of thy death, which thou didst offer up on the cross for the sins of the whole world, and particularly for my sins, be ever fresh in my remembrance. O blessed Saviour, let that mighty salvation thy love hath wrought for us, never slip out of my mind, but especially let my remembrance of thee in the holy Sacrament be always most lively and affecting. O Jesu! if I love thee truly, I shall be sure to frequent thy altar, that I may often remember all the wonderful loves of my crucified Redeemer. I know, O my Lord and my God, that a bare remembrance of thee is not enough: O do thou, therefore, fix in me such a remembrance of thee as is suitable to the infinite love I am to remember; work in me all those holy and heavenly affections, which become the remembrance of a crucified Saviour; and do thou so dispose my heart to be thy guest at thy holy table, that I may feel all the sweet influences of love crucified; the strengthening and refreshing

PSALMS OF DAVID.

Beatus vir qui non abiit. Psal. 1.

BLESSED is the man that hath not walked in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stood in the way of sinners: and hath not sat in the seat of the scornful.

2. But his delight is in the law of the Lord : and in his law will he exercise himself day and night.

3. And he shall be like a tree planted by the water-side : that will bring forth his fruit in due season.

4. His leaf also shall not wither : and look whatsoever he doeth, it shall prosper.

5. As for the ungodly, it is not so with them : but they are like the chaff which the wind scattereth away from the face of the earth.

6. Therefore the ungodly shall not be able to stand in the judgment : neither the sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

7. But the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous : and the way of the ungodly shall perish.

. Domine, quis habitabit? Psal. 15.

LORD, who shall dwell in thy tabernacle : or who shall rest upon thy holy hill ?

2. Even he that leadeth an uncorrupt life : and doeth the thing which is right, and speaketh the truth from his heart.

15. And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven, to give light upon the earth : and it was so.

16. And God made two great lights ; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night : he made the stars also.

17. And God set them in the firmament of the heaven, to give light upon the earth,

18. And to rule over the day, and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness : and God saw that it was good.

6. But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.

7. And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life ; and man became a living soul.

8. And the Lord God planted a garden east-ward in Eden ; and there he had put the man whom he had formed.

NOW the serpent was more subtle than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made : and he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden ?

2. And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden :

3. But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.

4. And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die.

5. For God doth know, that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened : and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.

6. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise ; she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her, and he did eat.

7. And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked : and they sewed fig-leaves together, and made themselves aprons.

8. And they heard the voice of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day : And Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God amongst the trees of the garden.

SOME CHAPTERS IN THE GOSPEL OF ST. MATTHEW.

C H A P. I. Verse 18.

NOW the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise : When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

19. Then Joseph her husband being a just man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily.

20. But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife : for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21. And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS : for he shall save his people from their sins.

22. Now all this was done that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23. Behold, a Virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel ; which being interpreted is, God with us.

24. Then Joseph being raised from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife :

2. Saying, Where is he that is born king of the Jews ? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3. When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4. And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born ?

5. And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judaea : for thus it is written by the prophet,

6. And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda : for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

7. Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8. And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go, and search diligently for the young child ; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

2. And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3. Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4. Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5. Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7. Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8. Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

30. And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee : for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

31. It hath been said, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorce.

32. But I say unto you, That whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery : and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced, committeth adultery.

33. Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths.

34. But I say unto you, Swear not at all ; neither by heaven, for it is God's throne :

35. Nor by the earth, for it is his footstool ; neither by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great king.

36. Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black :

37. But let your communication be, Yea, yea : nay, nay : for whatsoever is more than these, cometh of evil.

38. Ye have heard that it hath been said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.

39. But I say unto you, That ye resist not evil : But whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

BY CAPTAIN BRANT.

C H A P. I.

THE beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ the Son of God.

2. As it is written in the prophets, Behold I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3. The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4. John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.

5. And there went out unto him all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins.

6. And John was clothed with camels hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins: and he did eat locusts and wild honey.

7. And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

8. I indeed

8. I indeed have baptized you with water : but he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost.

9. And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan.

10. And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him.

11. And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

12. And immediately the spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

13. And he was there in the wilderness forty days tempted of Satan, and was with the wild beasts, and the angels ministered unto him.

14. Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the Gospel of the kingdom of God,

15. And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand : repent ye and believe the Gospel.

16. Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: (for they were fishers)

17. And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

20. And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

21. And they went into Capernaum, and straightway on the sabbath-day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

22. And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23. And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out,

24. Saying, Let us alone, what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.

28. And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

29. And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James, and John.

30. But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her.

31. And he came and took her by the hand and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32. And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

33. And all the city was gathered together at the door.

34. And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils, and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him.

35. And in the morning rising up a great while before day, he went out and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

AND he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea, and the whole multitude was by the sea, on the land.

2. And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine,

3. Hearken, Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4. And it came to pass as he sowed, some fell by the way-side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5. And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth, and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth.

6. But when the sun was up, it was scorched, and because it had no root, it withered away.

7. And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8. And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up, and increased, and brought forth, some thirty and some sixty, and some an hundred.

23. And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee unto the half of my kingdom.

24. And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.

25. And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger, the head of John the Baptist.

26. And the king was exceeding sorry, yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

27. And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison,

28. And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.

IN those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2. I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3. And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.

4. And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5. And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6. And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them: and they did set them before the people.

7. And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

15. And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

16. He that believeth and is baptized, shall be saved ; but he that believeth not, shall be damned.

17. And these signs shall follow them that believe ; In my name shall they cast out devils : they shall speak with new tongues ;

18. They shall take up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing it shall not hurt them ; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

19. So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.

Of the Holy Scriptures.

FOR the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2 Peter i. 21.

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works. 2 Tim. iii. 16, 17.

But the Lord is the true God; he is the living God, and an everlasting King: at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation. Jer. x. 10.

God is a Spirit: and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit and in truth. S. John iv. 24.

Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory, for ever and ever. Amen. 1 Tim. i. 17.

Thus saith the Lord; let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might; let not the rich man glory in his riches.

But let him that glorieth, glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lord, which exercise loving kindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the Lord. Jer. ix. 23, 24.

For there is one God, and one mediator between God and man, the man Christ Jesus. 1 Tim. ii. 5.

And we have seen and do testify, that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. 1 John iv. 14.

Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved. Acts iv. 12.

And (having made peace through the blood of his cross) by him to reconcile all things unto himself, by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven. Col. i. 20.

How Christ became Man.

BUT when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son made of a woman, made under the law. Gal. iv. 4.

And in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, S. Luke i. 26.

To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. 27.

And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. 28.

And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God. 30.

And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name J E S U S. 31.

He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David. 32.

Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? 34.

And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee, shall be called the Son of God. 35.

Concerning Christ's sitting at the Right Hand of God, and making Intercession for us.

BUT we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels, for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.
Heb. ii. 9.

Stephen being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God.
Acts vii. 55.

Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, ye, rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.
Rom. viii. 34.

But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood.
Heb. vii. 24.

Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.

Concerning Christ's commanding his Disciples to preach the Gospel to the World, and Baptism.

GO ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. S. Matth. xxviii. 19.

He that believeth and is baptized, shall be saved; but he that believeth not, shall be damned. S. Mark xvi. 16.

Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ, for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. Acts ii. 38.

For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. 39.

Then they that gladly received his word, were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls. 41.

Concerning the Lord's Supper.

AND he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you : this do in remembrance of me. S. Luke xxii. 19.

Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. 20.

For I have received of the Lord, that which also I delivered unto you, that the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread : 1 Cor. xi. 23.

And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat ; this is my body, which is broken for you : this do in remembrance of me. 24.

After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood : this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. 25.

For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. 26.

Wherefore, whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. 27.

Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. Isa. lv. 7.

I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. S. Luke xiii. 3.

He that covereth his sins, shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them, shall have mercy. Prov. xxviii. 13.

ORDER FOR THE MINISTRATION OF THE HOLY COMMUNION.

OUR Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven; Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, unto whom all hearts be open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Minister.

GOD spake these words, and said, I am the Lord thy God: Thou shalt have none other gods but me.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Thou shalt not make to thyself any graven image, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, and visit the sins of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; and shew mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his Name in vain.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath-day. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to do; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: In it thou shalt do no manner of work, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, thy cattle, and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Honour thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Thou shalt do no murder.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Thou shalt not steal.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his servant, nor his maid, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is his.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these thy laws in our hearts we beseech thee.

Let us pray for the whole state of Christ's Church.

Almighty and everliving God, who by thy holy Apostle hath taught us to make prayers and supplications, and to give thanks for all men; We humbly beseech thee most mercifully [ to accept our alms and oblations, and*] to receive these our prayers which we offer unto thy divine Majesty, beseeching thee to inspire continually the universal Church with the spirit of truth, unity and concord; and grant that all they that do confess thy holy Name, may agree in the truth of thy holy word, and live in unity and godly love.

[ If there be no alms or oblations, then shall the words (of accepting our alms and oblations) be left out unsaid.]*

We beseech thee also to save and defend all Christian Kings, Princes and Governors; and especially thy servant G E O R G E our King, that under him we may be godly and quietly governed: and grant unto his whole Council, and to all that are put in authority under him, that they may truly and indifferently minister justice, to the punishment of wickedness and vice, and to the maintenance of thy true religion and virtue. Give grace, O heavenly Father, to all Bishops and Curates, that they may both by their life and doctrine set forth thy true and lively Word, and rightly and duly administer thy holy Sacraments: and to all thy people give thy heavenly

The First Exhortation to Communion.

DEARLY beloved, on—day next, I purpose, thro' God's assistance, to administer to all such as shall be religiously and devoutly disposed, the most comfortable Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ, to be by them received in remembrance of his meritorious cross and passion, whereby alone we obtain remission of our sins, and are made partakers of the kingdom of heaven. Wherefore it is our duty to render most humble and hearty thanks to Almighty God our heavenly Father, for that he hath given his Son our Saviour Jesu Christ, not only to die for us, but also to be our spiritual food and sustenance in that holy Sacrament. Which being so divine and comfortable a thing to them who receive it worthily, and so dangerous to them that will presume to receive it unworthily.

[My duty is to exhort you in the mean season to consider the dignity of that holy Mystery, and the great peril of the unworthy receiving thereof, and so to search and examine your own consciences, (and that not lightly, and after the manner of dissemblers with God; but so,) that ye may come holy and clean to such a heavenly feast, in the marriage-garment required by God in holy Scripture, and be received as worthy partakers of that holy Table.]

The way and means thereto is: First, to examine your lives and conversations by the rule of God's commandments; and wherein soever ye shall perceive yourselves to have offended, either by will, word, or deed, there to bewail your own sinfulness, and

And if ye shall perceive your offences to be such as are not only against God, but also against your neighbours, then ye shall reconcile yourselves unto them, being ready to make restitution and satisfaction according to the uttermost of your powers, for all injuries and wrongs done by you to any others; and being likewise ready to forgive others that have offended you, as ye would have forgiveness of your offences at God's hand: for otherwise the receiving of the holy Communion doth nothing else but increase your damnation. Therefore if any of you be a blasphemer of God, an hinderer or slanderer of his word, an adulterer, a drunkard, or be in malice, or envy, or in any other grievous crime; repent you of your sins, or else come not to that holy Table; lest, after the taking of that holy Sacrament, the devil enter into you, as he entered into Judas, and fill you full of all iniquities, and bring you to destruction both of body and soul.

Exhortation at the Time of Celebration.

DEARLY beloved in the Lord, ye that mind to come to the holy Communion of the Body and Blood of our Saviour Christ, must consider how Saint Paul exhorteth all persons diligently to try and examine themselves, before they presume to eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. For as the benefit is great, if with a true penitent heart and lively faith we receive that holy Sacrament: [(for then we spiritually eat the flesh of Christ, and drink his blood;)] then we dwell in Christ and Christ in us; we are one with Christ, and Christ with us:) So is the danger great, if we receive the same unworthily. For then we are guilty of the Body and Blood of Christ our Saviour; [we eat and drink our own damnation,] not considering the Lord's body; we kindle God's wrath against us; we provoke him to plague us with divers diseases, and

And above all things ye must give most humble and hearty thanks to God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, for the redemption of the world by the death and passion of our Saviour Christ, both God and man, who did humble himself even to the death upon the Cross, for us miserable sinners, who lay in darkness and the shadow of death, that he might make us the children of God, and exalt us to everlasting life. And to the end that we should alway remember the exceeding great love of our Master, and only Saviour, Jesus Christ thus dying for us, and the innumerable benefits which by his precious blood-shedding he hath obtained to us; he hath instituted and ordained holy Mysteries, as pledges of his love; and for a continual remembrance of his death, to our great and endless comfort. I hear the words of the Gospel written by Saint Mark, in the 10th Chapter, at the 13th Verse.

THEY brought young children to Christ that he should touch them; and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily, I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

BELOVED, ye hear in this Gospel the words of our Saviour Christ, that he commanded the children to be brought unto him; how he blamed those that would have kept them from him; how he exhorteth all men to follow their innocency. Ye perceive how by his outward gesture and deed he declared his good will toward them; for he embraced them in his arms, he laid his hands upon them, Wherefore, after this promise made by Christ, this Infant must also faithfully for his part promise by you that are his Sureties, (until he come of age to take it upon himself,) that he will renounce the devil and all his works, and constantly believe God's holy Word, and obediently keep his Commandments.

I demand therefore,

DOST thou, in the name of this Child, renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the fame, and the carnal desires of the flesh, so that thou wilt not follow or be led by them?

Answer. I renounce them all.

Minister.

DOST thou believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth?

And in Jesus Christ his only begotten Son our Lord? And that he was conceived by the Holy Ghost; born of the Virgin Mary; that he suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried;

THE FORM OF SOLEMNIZATION OF MATRIMONY.

DEARLY beloved, we are gathered together here in the sight of God, and in the face of this Congregation, to join together this Man and this Woman in holy Matrimony; which is an honourable estate instituted of God in the time of man's innocence, signifying unto us the mystical union that is betwixt Christ and his Church: which holy estate [Christ adorned and beautified with his presence, and first miracle that he wrought in Cana of Galilee; and] is commended of Saint Paul to be honourable among all men; and therefore is not by any to be enterprized, nor taken in hand unadvisedly, lightly, or wantonly, to satisfy mens carnal lusts and appetites, like brute beasts that have no understanding; but reverently, discreetly, advisedly, soberly, and in the fear of God, duly considering the causes for which Matrimony was ordained.

First, it was ordained for the procreation of Children, to be brought up in the fear and nurture of the Lord, and to the praise of his holy Name.

Secondly, it was ordained for a remedy against sin, and to avoid fornication, that such persons as have not the gift of continency might marry, and keep themselves undefiled members of Christ's body.

The Minister also, speaking to the persons that shall be married, shall say,

I Require and charge you both (as ye will answer at the dreadful day of judgment, when the secrets of all hearts shall be disclosed) that if either of you know any impediment, why ye may not be lawfully joined together in Matrimony, ye do now confess it. For be ye well assured, that so many as are coupled together otherwise than God's word doth allow, are not joined together by God, neither is their Matrimony lawful.

Then shall they give their troth to each other in this manner.

The Minister receiving the Woman at her father's or friend's hands, shall cause the Man with his right hand to take the Woman by her right hand, and to say after him as followeth,

IN. take thee N. to my wedded Wife, to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death us do part,

THE ORDER FOR THE BURIAL OF THE DEAD.

¶ The Priest and Clerks meeting the corps at the entrance of the Churchyard, and going before it, either into the Church, or towards the Grave, shall say or sing,

I Am the resurrection and the life, saith the Lord : he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. S. John xi. 25, 26.

I Know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth. And though after my skin, worms destroy this body ; yet in my flesh shall I see God : whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another. Job xix. 25, 26, 27.

WE brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away ; blessed be the Name of the Lord. 1 Tim. vi. 7. Job i. 21.

MAN that is born of a woman hath but a short time to live, and is full of misery. He cometh up, and is cut down like a flower ; he fleeth as it were a shadow, and never continueth in one stay.

In the midst of life we are in death : of whom may we seek for succour, but of thee, O Lord, who for our sins art justly displeased ?

Yet, O Lord God most holy, O Lord most mighty, O holy and most merciful Saviour, deliver us not into the bitter pains of eternal death.

Thou knowest, Lord, the secrets of our hearts ; shut not thy merciful ears to our prayers ; but spare us, Lord, most holy, O God most mighty, O holy and merciful Saviour, thou most worthy Judge eternal, suffer us not at our last hour for any pains of death to fall from thee.

FORASMUCH as it hath pleased Almighty God of his great mercy to take unto himself the soul of our dear brother here departed, we therefore commit his body to the ground ; * earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust, in sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life, through our Lord Jesus Christ, who shall change our vile body, that it may be like unto his glorious body, accord-

The Collect.

Psalm 23.

1 THE Lord himself, the mighty Lord,
Vouchsafes to be my guide ;
The shepherd, by whose constant care
My wants are all supply'd.

2 In tender grass he makes me feed,
And gently there repose ;
Then leads me to cool shades ; and where Refreshing water flows.

3 He does my wand'ring soul reclaim ;
And, to his endless praise,
Instruct with humble zeal to walk
In his most right'ous ways.

4 I pass the gloomy vale of death,
From fear and danger free ;
For there his aiding rod and staff
Defend and comfort me.

5 In presence of my spiteful foes
He does my table spread :
He crowns my cup with chearful wine,
With oil anoints my head.

Thence to his courts devoutly press,
And still your grateful hymns repeat,
And still his name with praises bless.

His truth, which always firmly stood,
To endless ages shall endure.

Thy gifts are manifold, thou writ'st.

God's law in each true heart:
The promise of the Father, thou
Dost heav'nly speech impart,

Enlighten our dark souls, till they

Thy sacred love embrace;
Assist our minds, by nature frail,
With thy celestial grace.

Drive far from us the mortal foe,

And give us peace within;
That, by thy guidance bless'd, we may
Escape the snares of sin.

Teach us the Father to confess,

And Son from death reviv'd;
And with them both, thee, Holy Ghost,
Who art from both deriv'd.

With thee, O Father, therefore may

The Son from death restor'd,

Observations concerning the reading and pronunciation of the Mohawk Language.

1. The Mohawks never close their lips in speaking, and therefore do not use those letters which we call Labial; whereby their Alphabet is reduced to fifteen letters.

2. They pronounce a broad, like the Scots and Germans; æ as we pronounce a, and ɛ like our ee.

3. In the Mohawk language, a whole Sentence is often expressed by one word; and hence the excessive length of some words. It was therefore thought advisable to mark the syllables on which the accent should be laid. The grave (`) is placed over syllables that are pronounced long; the acute (') over short syllables; or where two syllables are accented in one word, the grave distinguishes the former, the acute the latter.

4. As this language abounds with Gutturals, some of which are pronounced stronger, others weaker; the former are expressed by gh, the latter by hh.
