Business Success

To Messrs.

Warwick Bro's
& Rutter, Limited

We, your employees, take the opportunity offered on the occasion of the rounding out by this house of a very successful sixty years of business, to congratulate you on your commercial Diamond Jubilee.

To many of us this anniversary is almost a personal matter, because of our long and delightful association with you, and to all of us it offers an occasion for this formal, yet none the less heartfelt expression of our appreciation of your unvarying kindness, sympathy and consideration.

It is unnecessary to assure you of the undeviating loyalty of each member of your large staff of employees, many of whom have had sufficient reason to feel gratified for tokens of your sympathetic interest in their personal affairs, an interest that is all too uncommon in this sordid business world. Such a sympathy could only be prompted by a fine Christian spirit of loving charitableness, and that it should be shown unostentatiously, as sincere and effective, is but characteristic of yourselves as generous and considerate employers, desiring to practice that broader humanity taught by the Great Teacher.

Let us earnestly wish each member of the Firm long life and a continuation of the present business prosperity, assuring you of our steadfast personal interest in salesroom, factory and office, to the promotion of mutual financial benefit and social relations.
