

TORONTO

917.13541
T592

TORONTO

The Convention and Tourist City of Canada

Interesting and beautiful itself and conveniently situated for side trips to the Muskoka and Kawartha Lakes, Niagara Falls, Georgian Bay, with its 30,000 Islands; River St. Lawrence and other popular and famous resorts

Parliament Buildings, Provincial Capital

Cor. King and Yonge Sts.

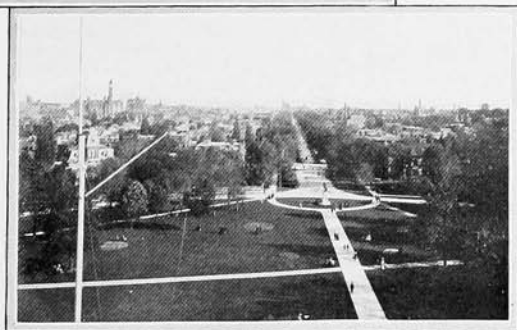

King St., looking east from Bay St.

Entrance to University
Grounds

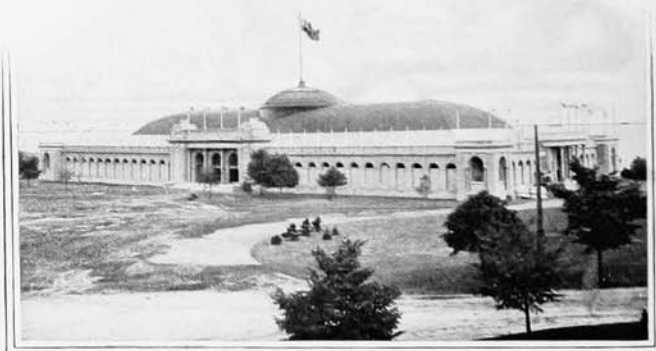

Residential
Scene
in Rosedale.

Queen's Park, view from Parliament Buildings

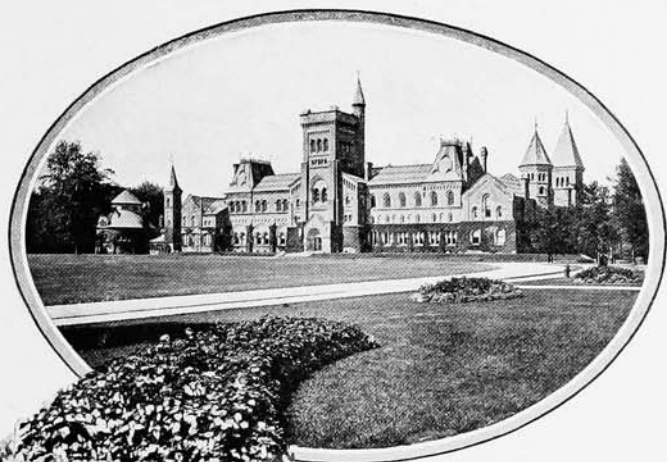

The Horse Ring

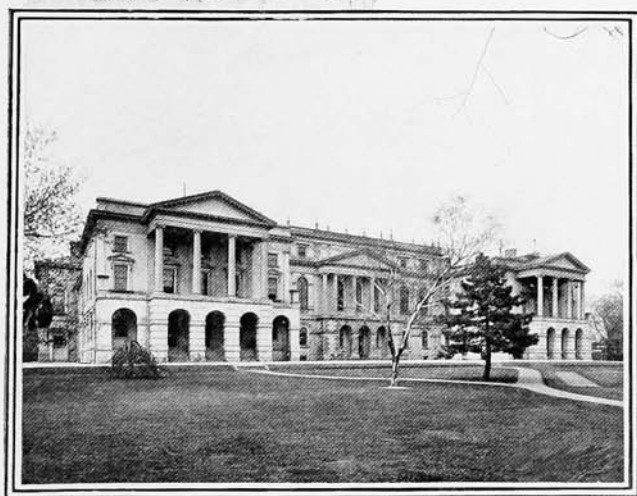

Manufacturers Building

CANADIAN NATIONAL EXHIBITION, TORONTO

Toronto University

Osgoode Hall, Law Centre of Ontario

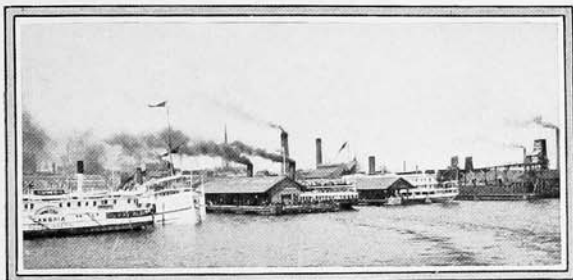

Bank and Office Building

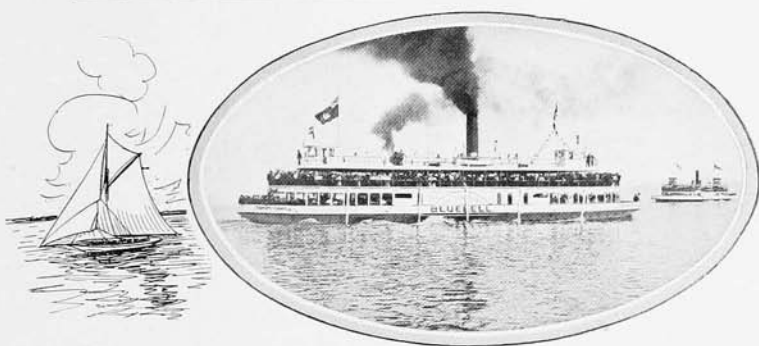

Temple Building

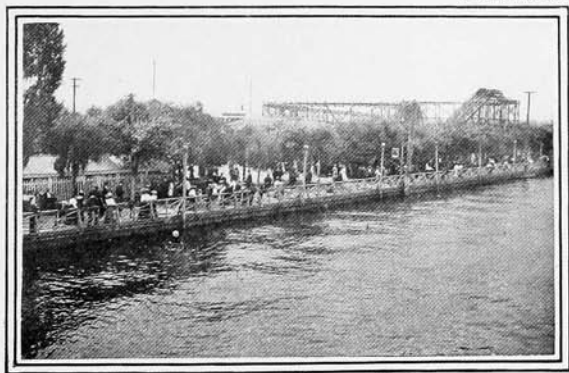

View
of Toronto
Harbor

Crossing Toronto Bay

Promenade, Hanlan's Point

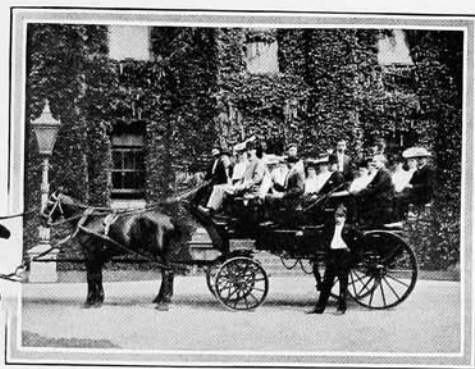

Island Scene

Regatta Day, Toronto Bay

Sight-seeing

King Edward Hotel

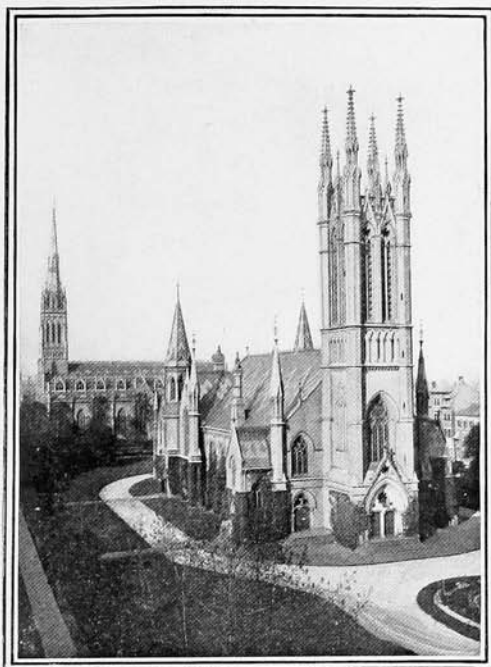

Queen's Park

Island Park

Allan Gardens

St. Michael's Cathedral

Metropolitan Church

St. James' Cathedral

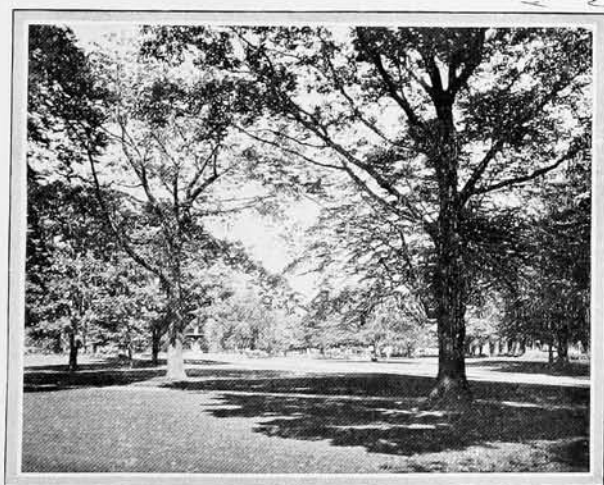

Toronto,
Financial Centre of Canada

Lagoon,
Island Park

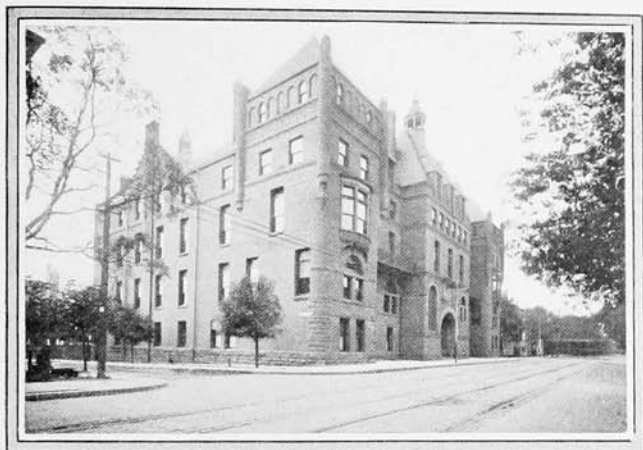

Park Scene

Driveways,
High Park

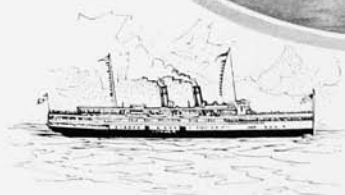

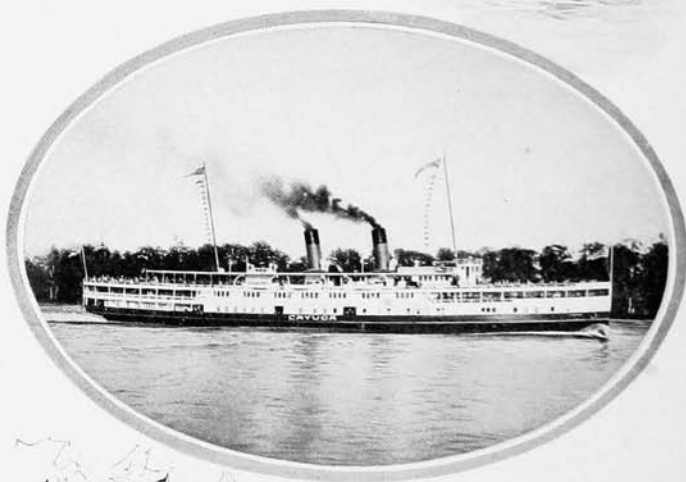

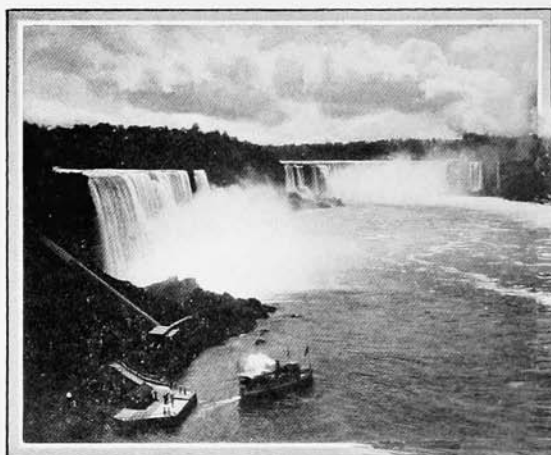

Sick Children's Hospital

Armouries

Ten boats leave
Toronto daily for
Niagara Falls

PRODUCED BY J. J. GIBBONS LIMITED.

Metropolitan Toronto Reference Library

Centre of Industry, Commerce and Education.

Increase in Assessm't, 1906, $18,302,167.
Total, $185,713,903.

Tax rate, 1907, 18½ Mills on the Dollar.

Yonge Street, busiest street in Canada.

One thousand seven hundred acres of Parks in city limits.

Famed as the Convention City of Canada.

Toronto Railway carried 76,109,932 passengers in 1906.

Only successful annual Exhibition in the world.

Railways: Grand Trunk, Canadian Pacific, Canadian Northern.

Osgoode Hall, law centre of Ontario.

Number of building permits, 1906, 5,024;
value, $13,160,398.00.

The population is 300,000.

Ontario's Capital.

For information about Toronto apply to Department of Industries and Publicity, City Hall.

