ATLAS OF THE CITY OF TORONTO

AND VICINITY.

REVISED TO MARCH 1899
LATEST REGISTERED PLANS INCLUDED are as follows
CITY REG. OFF. (EASTERN DIV.) No. 173 E Filed JULY 4. 1898
CITY " " WEST ") No. 1107 " DEC. 30 1898
COUNTY REG. OFF. No. 1205 " NOV. 29 1898
OSGOODE HALL No. M 199

SECOND EDITION—APRIL 1890.

SINCE the preparation of the 1884 Edition, the city has increased so rapidly, and the area is now so much more extensive, that it has been found necessary to add eleven plates to the 39 that comprised the original edition; and even now, many parts are worthy of being shown to a larger scale than has been adopted, but subscriptions do not as yet warrant a larger expenditure.

The whole of the City and vicinity has again been carefully gone over, advertisements and special requests to subscribers have again received courteous response, the originals being examined and verified in a manner that shows the mutual interest taken in the work by consistent patrons.

The courtesies of the Registrars of the City of Toronto and of the County of York, and of the Master of Titles at Osgoode Hall, are acknowledged; they having allowed copies to be taken of plans filed since issue of first edition.

The present work embraces 1,186 more registered plans than the previous one, and is one-fourth larger, parts being detailed to 300' and 400' scale in place of to 1,000' scale—and a district added one mile North of Eglington Avenue, thus enabling the whole location of the Belt Line Railway to be shown.

The latest Registered Plans included are as follows:

CITY REGISTRY OFFICE.—EASTERN DIVISION (all East of Spadina Ave.)	No. 61 E. Filed March 14, 1890 (58 E, 59 E, 60 E being omitted.)
CITY REGISTRY OFFICE.—WESTERN DIVISION (all West of Spadina Ave.)	No. 979. Filed March 7, 1890 (976, 978 being omitted.)
COUNTY REGISTRY OFFICE.—	No. 1013. Filed March 22, 1890.
OSGOODE HALL (Master of Titles)—	No. M 120. Filed March 13, 1890.

N. B.—The affix E is now used in all Eastern Division Plan.s
The prefix M denotes registration under the "Land Titles Act."
Several private plans (to be subsequently registered), have been inserted at owners' requests.

A comprehensive Street Index follows this page, containing 1,696 names, which, it is believed, comprises every Street, Avenue, and Place.

It is a great source of regret that no method can be adopted to show the exact area to which each registered plan refers, but the sub-divisions are frequently so irregular, the plans so interlaced with each other and the buildings interfere so much, that there seems no practical way of giving this information, unless by preparing a comprehensive tabulated index of plans, which may possibly be undertaken if subscriptions be received in sufficient amount to warrant expense.

At present it will be well for subscribers to retain the First Edition, as by using it side by side with the present Atlas, changes and sub-divisions will be more clearly understood, the old edition showing the original division of lots, and the new one the sub-divisions made since 1884. The old edition will also be of value in affording reference to obsolete street names and to old street numbers.

If a plan seems to have been entirely superseded by a later registration, the word obsolete (obs.) is added. Whenever practicable, lot numbers of old and new plans are shown, but where not possible to enter both without confusion, only those in the latest plans are noted. As the practice is increasing of dividing suburban properties into 20'-18' and even 15' lots, it is extremely difficult to show these small divisions without enlarging the scale more than the value of such localities would seem to warrant.
