SCENES and SONGS

Places have always inspired songs. You will recall the "Banks of Loch Lomond", "Tipperary", "Where the River Shannon Flows". In the United States, there are songs about almost every river, city and state in the Union. Examples are: "Swanee River", "On the Banks of the Wabash", "Meet Me in St. Louis, Louis", "Moon Over Miami", "Beautiful Ohio", "Way Down in Old Indiana". Famous songs dot the map of the U.S.A. from "California Here I Come" to "The Sidewalks of New York."

Canada has some of the most inspiring scenery in the world. No song-writer has yet written a song about Banff—what rhymes with Banff anyway?—but one may try! Canada is the land of breath-taking scenery—may her song-writers catch the spirit of the scenes and write some great songs about Canadian places!

Your music dealer can supply you with songs about places. You will find many of the above songs and other place-songs in folios and in sheet music copies. Enjoy a music travelog at your piano.
