Kha - ki boys are out to win, The great and aw - ful war — They've now they've cross'd the oc - ean deep, Just watch them how they fight — They're p sworn to stand and no - bly do, Till Wil-helm is no more — He fight - ing for our Moth - er - land, And then they know they're right — Oh, thinks he is a might - y man, The world's at his com - mand — Be-King and Coun - try proud are they Of Can - a - da's Kha - ki boys — And fore he's thro' he'll find out too, That we have the con - qu'ring men. — bye and bye our foe will see, They're noth - ing but Eng - land's toys. —

CHORUS

Then, cheer the Kha - ki boys as they march a - long the street, —

p-f

They are the boys the Ger-man's fear, Help them a - long with a right good cheer, And as they march a - way, you will hear the Kha - ki say: — Hur - rah, — Hur - rah, — England shall nev - er fall. Then England shall nev - er fall. —
