

*A Valentine Message
To My SWEETHEART In the Army*

You know you mean the world to me,

And that I love you, too,
And so this message doesn't say
A single thing that's new;
But every word of it's sincere
And, though we are apart,
You know that always you will hold
First place within my heart.
